AMUSEMENTS.

The YON BULOW CONCERT.

The first of the hotel series of Von Bulow concerts was given last evening at McCormick's Hall.

The house was not as full as it should have been, but still it was a good audience, considering the capricious character of Chicago concert-goers, and better than all for the pianist, at least in a musical sense, it was the most musical audience that has been assembled in Chicago for years.

All the prominent musicians and musical connoisseurs of the city were in attendance, and they gave the great pianist, therefore, the need of an earnest, appreciative, and critical audience.

Mr. Bulow was discriminative, and based upon something better than a mere impulse or enthusiasm.

THE STATE OF CHAMBERS.

Yesterday morning William A. Butters, of Clay, the wine-seller, had a large number of clay pipes, imported by the Amstelbier, Nederlands, at the Union Standard Hotel, 100 Madison street. There were large pipes and very long and short stemmed. The attendance was quite large, but the enthusiasm was not very great, as the pipes were not very good.

The lots consisted of the old-fashioned long-stemmed Dutch pipes, "Peter Dorn," and very well-constructed Scotch and French pipes.

John Crittice, of No. 8, Peacock's, Court, Baltimore; Gould & Co., Peacock's, Marion & Blair, M. Glines & Co., J. C. Partridge & Co., Beck & Wirth, Messing & Rothchild, Wade, and Deichman & Co., of this city. The sale realized $238,55, barely paying cost of importation and the duty upon the goods.
